Welcome to Mt. Fuji, a World Heritage site.

To ensure a wonderful summer memory of your visit, please climb safely.

- Temperature and weather conditions on the mountain is prone to drastic changes. Bring your gear for rain and cold weather, and avoid climbing in a casual clothing.
 - If the sky shows signs of lightning, take refuge in one of the mountain huts and wait until the storm passes before continuing your hike.
 - Follow the designated hiking routes. Straying from the paths and taking a rest is extremely dangerous. Straying hikers can get lost or can cause falling rocks.
 - Only rest in areas that are safe. Do not rest in areas where there is a caution for falling rocks or in areas where the path is narrow.
 - Do not continue hiking if you feel any symptoms of altitude sickness (such as headaches or nausea).
 - If you are climbing with a group, be careful not to be separated.
 - On the descending route, there are no mountain huts after the Yoshida Trail/Subashiri Trail junction.
 - Ensure that you carry adequate drinking water for the descent.
 - Take your trash with you when you leave.
- ★ Mt. Fuji is an active volcano. If the eruption alert level is raised while going up or down the mountain, go down at once. If by any chance an eruption occurs, take refuge in places such as a nearby mountain hut or hiding place and act according to the instructions of officials.

◎ Use of the 7th Station and mountain hut toilets along Yoshida descending route.

- *Be respectful and sanitary when using the toilets. The Yoshida Trail toilet is open 24 hours.
- *During descent, toilets are located at the summit, Original 8th Station Fujisan Hotel, 7th Station (public toilet), and Mt. Fuji Safety Guidance Center (6th Station).
- *Toilet upkeep is not included in the general budget for the maintenance of Mt.Fuji. Toilets are operated out of the goodwill of those involved. When using these toilets, please leave a tip of 200 yen.

◎ The descending route is currently closed.

- * When there is much of remaining snow, and also the period of mountain closure on the Shizuoka Prefecture side, the descending route (from summit to area around the 8th Station) will be closed. When descending Mt Fuji, follow the ascending route and use the right junction (Above Gansomuro).
